

Earthlite Table Buying Guide

We proudly carry only Earthlite Reiki Massage Tables. Earthlite is the world's #1 brand for massage tables & supplies, and we highly recommend them to our Reiki practitioners and students. We've created this buying guide to help you in your decision making process.

Quality Construction

Earthlite tables are manufactured with care and respect for the environment, using only sustainable hardwoods (no rainforest hardwoods), and environmentally friendly products in their construction. Frames are finger-jointed, corner blocks and leg braces are designed for superior frame strength.

Weight Limits

Earthlite tables are designed and manufactured with safety in mind and are rigorously tested. Their tables are designed to easily hold over 1,000 pounds, and they have earned a UL-listing for strength, stability and safety.

Adjustability & Accessibility

Earthlite tables easily adjust to the best working height for the practitioner. They also offer Reiki end plates, so the practitioner can sit at the head or foot of the table and place their knees under the table for optimal comfort.

How soon can I get my table?

Stock tables are shipped within three business days. Special order (upgrade to Reiki endplates are considered special order) & non-stock tables are typically shipped within one week of the order. Actual shipping times vary based on shipping location & shipping service requested.

How will my table be shipped?

All tables and accessories are shipped by Federal Express from Earthlite's production facility in Southern California.

Return Policy

If for any reason, you are not completely satisfied with your Earthlite table or accessory, you may return it to Earthlite within 30 days for a full refund excluding ground shipping on the original order continental U.S. only. Customized or upgraded tables are non-returnable & non-refundable. Returns must be pre-approved by Earthlite in like-new condition & original packaging and paperwork. Earthlite does not accept returns on any type of custom orders. You're responsible for any shipping charges on returns or exchanges. Please do not return tables or accessories directly to us.

Change, Cancellation, & Rush Policy

You may change or cancel your order at any time before the order ships out; however, doing so will incur a change/cancellation fee of 20% on the subtotal of the original order. We will only issue a store credit for canceled orders. We do not accept any changes or cancellations on custom orders.

Limited Lifetime Warranty

Earthlite guarantees their Reiki Massage tables against defects in material, design & craftsmanship, limited to repair or replacement of the item for as long as you, the original purchaser, own the table, or 5 years after the table is discontinued. The upholstery fabrics are guaranteed for 3 years & the foam for 5 years. Does not include damage caused by accident, misuse or neglect such as tears in the upholstery. The Harmony table has a 2 year warranty, with the same terms and conditions as above. Accessories are warranted for 1 year.

What's the difference between the Spirit, Luna, Avalon XD and Harmony DX Reiki Massage tables?
